PTO Coca Cola Awards

Rick Cundey

An anonymous donor gave a gym clock. Additional space is available for ads in the gym. Contact Rick for information.

Coca Cola Company is helping us in several ways this year. They gave the school six thousand dollars towards the scoreboards. They are providing drinks for the Page Academic Bowl, which we are hosting. They are the major sponsors for this year's golf tournament

Aubin Smith: is a model student who always exhibits good behavior especially in church at mass. Aubin has a wonderful attitude announcing often how much he loves school. He is a responsible leader who also encourages others to do their best.

Hagan Gantz from 3c. He brings recycling papers each week to support the 6 Th grade project

Stephanie Munie: from 5a. She is on student council, led the way for three new student council projects. Through Stephanie's initiative, the council started seminary pen pal, Food 4 families can collection, and running the bookstand at the carnival

Teresa Ziamba: for good Christian character and mass participation.

Pat Lattimore: does so much for our school. Pat takes care of the children and the teachers when we are sick. She cleans the sinks, bathrooms and water fountains if there is any bug going around the school so we can cut down on illness. Pat lends an ear to teachers and students when they just need to be listened to. She cleans the teachers' lounge often when no one is even aware she does it. Pat helps the office staff, she relieves teachers so they can take breaks she helps in many other ways. Pat does anything she is asked Pat is also a wonderful friend and Christian example in this school.

Sara Pollock: has done a tremendous job filling in those shoes of our beloved Amy. She walked into a classroom knowing that her students would reminisce of the teacher they loved, wondering if Miss Pollock would teach in the same manner or if the same project would still be done. Sara welcomed her students to express their talent and feel free to accept new skills. Her creativity and zeal for teaching is very appreciated.

Katherine Doss: prepares creative hands on lessons for her 3rd graders. She is always looking for resources for new and enhanced lessons. She assists with spring and Christmas prgm. She also served on the school advisory board and Area One of the Florida Catholic Conference self study.

Barbara Lewis: for the past 33 years has prepared 8th graders for their transition to high school. Along with the many subjects she teaches she also handles the graduation ceremony, history fair and production of the yearbook. Over the years she has served on the Florida Catholic Conference Steering Committee, School advisory Committee and assisted with the volleyball team.
